

Eagle Building (1st Floor)

RAFB & WWII COMMEMORATIVE

*Ferocious
Frankie*

The World War II Commemorative exhibit tells the story of building Robins Air Force Base and of World War II.

483rd BOMBARDMENT GROUP

The Museum of Aviation honors the 483rd Bomb Group with an exhibit extolling the unit's combat experience in Europe during 1944-1945.

FLYING THE HUMP

The Hump Pilot exhibit portrays the efforts and hardships endured by those who provided air logistics support in the China, Burma, India theater during World War II.

THE KOREAN WAR: THE FORGOTTEN WAR

*F-84E
Thunderjet*

This exhibit includes an F-84E "Thunderjet", which was acquired by the Museum in 1987.

14th AIR FORCE FLYING TIGERS

*P-40
Warhawk*

The story of Claire Chennault and the Flying Tigers is one of the most colorful of World War II. The exhibit features a P-40 aircraft that was acquired in 1994.

Eagle Building (2nd Floor)

THE ROBERT L. SCOTT, JR. STORY: GOD IS MY CO-PILOT

The exhibit includes large dioramas, one including a replica of Scott's first glider flight from Mrs. Napier's house in Macon, Ga at age twelve.

Hangar One

AMERICA'S BLACK EAGLES: THE TUSKEGEE PIONEERS...AND BEYOND

This exhibit highlights the sacrifices and significant contributions they and other black Americans made to the U.S. Air Force and nation.

*BT-13A
Valiant*

Century of Flight Hangar

AMBASSADORS IN BLUE: USAF THUNDERBIRDS

The exhibit features a Lockheed Martin F-16A "Fighting Falcon" aircraft as its centerpiece, supported by smaller aircrafts, photos, text, graphics, video, and an interactive F-16 flight simulator.

GEORGIA AVIATION HALL OF FAME

The exhibit honors aviation leaders, living and dead, whose extraordinary achievements or services have made outstanding and lasting contributions to aviation.